

Now the TCZ has been lifted, you can move your animals without licence freely within GB Were all the tests negative? You are not able to move any female animals (or their offspring) that tested positive or entire males that have Have all the animals on tested positive. You will remain under restriction your premises been (EXD01) but will be issued a multi-use licence (EXD590) You will be placed under restriction tested for BTV-3? that enable you to move animals that have tested (EXD01) and contacted by APHA to have negative freely provided you meet licence conditions your animals tested. If you want to move animals, including to a designated abattoir please contact APHA and request The premises restrictions (EXD01) will a specific licence be lifted and as soon as this happens, you will be able to move your animals Were you in a freely within GB (no licence needed) Temporary Control Were all animals tested Zone (TCZ)? Have any animals from an area that negative? became a TCZ in the high risk period You will remain under restriction Have your animals been tested for (EXD01) . If you need to move animals, or from a premises where BTV BTV-3? please contact APHA and request a positive animals have been You will be placed under confirmed, moved onto your restriction (EXD01) . If you need premises; or have you been to move animals, please contact You are able to move your animals subjected to BTV-3 tracings testing; APHA and request a specific freely within GB as long as they are or were tested as part of the BTV licence not showing any clinical signs (no Annual Surveillance licence needed) but it is possible that you may be approached at any time in the future to have some or all of your animals tested as part of

Information correct as of 21/2/24

specific licence

Bluetongue hotline: 024 7771 0386

BTV surveillance

